

---

---

Dispatch Broadcast Group

---

---

Current Job Openings as of April 3, 2009

Production Editor (Job #200WW): WBNS-TV in Columbus, Ohio, is looking for a highly creative Production Editor to join its award winning staff. The principal duties include editing HD and SD media for short and long-form programming, commercial production, corporate and marketing videos, broadcast specials, internet videos, and various other programming. Final Cut Pro editing experience on broadcast productions will be highly regarded, as well as a strong sense for graphics and sound. The applicant must have strong people skills, and the ability to collaborate effectively with staff and clients. Responsibilities also may include studio operations. College degree plus previous editing experience desired.

Producer (Job #200JR): WBNS-10TV, Central Ohio's News Leader, is looking for a dynamic producer to join our award-winning team. Candidate must know how to differentiate and showcase a newscast that is urgent and relevant to the viewer. WBNS-10TV has all of the tools necessary to produce a compelling newscast- two SNG trucks, multiple ENG trucks, 24/7 helicopter with 2 pilots, an investigative unit, special projects unit and Washington, DC bureau. WBNS is a CBS affiliate and privately owned by the Dispatch Printing Company which has a long history of quality journalism and commitment to the community. If you thrive on winning, we want to hear from you!

Anchor/Reporter/Producer (Job #400JD):

Ohio News Network (ONN) is searching for a multi-talented candidate to fill an immediate opening at our headquarters in Columbus, Ohio. This position is responsible for anchoring weekend morning newscasts, fill-in anchor/reporting, as well as producing newscasts. This position is responsible for all aspects of news gathering and presentation; therefore the successful candidate will possess strong anchoring, reporting, networking and producing skills. The ideal candidate will be highly motivated and enjoy the challenge of working in a variety of positions. In addition to producing newscasts with creativity and excellent writing, a reporter/anchor must be able to expertly conduct interviews, perform live shots, produce compelling television news reports & stories, shoot and edit video, and represent network in a positive and professional manner at all times.

Familiarity with Ohio, including geography, history and current events is a plus. Willingness to work flexible hours required. College degree and previous experience as a daily news reporter or anchor also required. ONN, Ohio's only 24 hour cable news channel, is an award winning news, weather, sports and lifestyle channel serving Ohio for more than a decade.

Account Manager, ONN Radio (Job #100ON): The Ohio News Network, one of the largest radio news networks in the country, is searching for a dynamic Account Manager to join our sales team. ONN Radio offers the right candidate the opportunity to put their marketing smarts to work by helping clients with a statewide presence grow and develop their business to Ohioans that listen to one of our 78 affiliates throughout the state. The successful candidate will thrive on collaborating with clients, solving marketing challenges and developing partnerships. Much of your day to day duties will be involved in discovering and developing key relationships with people inside state government agencies across the state, as well as companies who have a statewide distribution and presence across all 88 counties of the state. This position requires two or more years of successful business to business sales experience, and a degree in marketing. Experience in radio network sales or marketing and experience selling to government agencies strongly preferred. If you have the ability to build strong relationships, identify opportunities and build creative solutions and thrive on challenges, apply today.

Agency Account Manager (Job #100TS): 97.1 The Fan has exciting opportunities for experienced advertising agency focused Account Managers. These positions will offer the right candidate the opportunity to build new relationships and further develop existing relationships inside ad agencies in the Columbus market while working to expand the stations' shares of business. The successful candidate will have working knowledge of the stations' programming and web capabilities, as well as a strong understanding of the Arbitron and Scarborough sampling and data systems. This position requires previous ad agency experience at the buyer, planner or account executive level, preferably in the Columbus market. A thorough understanding of sports marketing and/or past sports marketing sales, business to business sales, negotiation, and a marketing degree highly preferred for this position.

Account Manager, 97.1 The Fan (Job #100RD): 97.1 The Fan is searching for a highly motivated individual for an opening on our staff for an entry level Account Manager. The successful candidate will primarily be responsible for new business development for one of the top sports talk stations in the nation. This is a great opportunity to enter the field of sports marketing while selling in Columbus, Ohio, the number one sports town in America according to the national research firm Scarborough Research. The winning candidate will be driven to help clients grow their business through the passion and connectivity of the sports fan in central Ohio. The Fan provides a comprehensive sales training program as well as a great work environment, you just need to bring the intensity to get it done. This position requires a marketing or similar degree, proven outside business to business sales experience, persuasive communication skills both orally and in writing, and detailed organizational skills that can keep up with a fast paced environment.

Qualified applicants may apply online at www.dispatchbroadcast.com. Dispatch Broadcast Group is an Equal Opportunity Employer. We are a smoke-free and drug-free workplace.