
In preparation for Tuesday

I. Write a paragraph summary for each story. You will need to think about how you would summarize each in a single paragraph. Remember – be clear, concise, complete, and correct.

II. Also write a paragraph on why you think the story was chosen for inclusion in a course about the infinite; that is what does the story say about this infinite or how does the infinite figure into the story or what insights into the infinite are found within the story.

Both paragraphs for each story should require some thought on your part; think before you write. Note that on the web-site I included Wikipedia links to provide background information for each story. Do not use this content in formulating your paragraphs; I’m looking for your thoughts and your insights and not someone else’s.
