San Francisco, CA

Muir Woods & Dinner in Sausalito

$100 USD

Experience two of California's most beautiful treasures: Muir Woods and Sausalito. Your journey begins as you cross the beautiful Golden Gate Bridge to Marin County en route to Muir Woods, declared by conservationist John Muir as "the best tree-lovers monument that could possibly be found in all the forests of the world." Upon arrival you will have time for a leisurely stroll through this beautiful 550-acre national monument which takes you beneath 1,000-year-old coast redwood trees. Then, travel to the Mediterranean-like village of Sausalito, sometimes compared to the French Riviera. This charming waterfront community, which lies on the opposite side of the Golden Gate Bridge from San Francisco, offers an exceptional ambiance with many open air cafes, unique boutiques, and marinas. After plenty of time for browsing, enjoy an elegant dining experience at a lovely waterfront restaurant. Duration: Approximately 6 hours. Please note a minimum of 25 passengers is required. Transportation is included.
